

Conditions Governing Use of Materials from Special Collections for Publication

Copyright Restrictions

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, U.S. Code) governs the making of photocopies and other reproductions of copyrighted material. Libraries and archives are authorized to furnish reproductions upon request for specified purposes, including private study, scholarship, and research; publication; and public exhibition. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept an order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of that order would involve violation of copyright law.

Publication or Public Exhibition Use

Permission to use department materials for publication or public exhibition must be obtained in writing from Special Collections and/or the copyright holder, if copyright is held by any other person or entity. On this application, please indicate which items you are seeking to publish or exhibit and where you wish to publish or exhibit them. Special Collections would appreciate receiving copies of any publications using items from its collections.

Please describe materials to be used in publication:

Please describe publication or exhibit:

Use of any archival copies must be only for the purpose stated above. If you later wish to make a different or additional use of these materials, you will need to contact Special Collections for permission.

Use of the following credit line for publication or exhibit is required:

[Title of collection, (control number)], Special Collections, University Libraries, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University [URL, if applicable].

Citation for use:

[Title of collection, (control number)], Special Collections, University Libraries, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University [URL, if applicable].

My signature below acknowledges that I will comply with all the conditions of use stated above.

Signature: _____

Date:

Staff /Date:

