Conditions Governing Use of Materials from Special Collections for Publication

Copyright Restrictions
The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, U.S. Code) governs the making of photocopies and other reproductions of copyrighted material. Libraries and archives are authorized to furnish reproductions upon request for specified purposes, including private study, scholarship, and research; publication; and public exhibition. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept an order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of that order would involve violation of copyright law.

Publication or Public Exhibition Use
Permission to use department materials for publication or public exhibition must be obtained in writing from Special Collections and/or the copyright holder, if copyright is held by any other person or entity. On this application, please indicate which items you are seeking to publish or exhibit and where you wish to publish or exhibit them. Special Collections would appreciate receiving copies of any publications using items from its collections.

Please describe materials to be used in publication:
