ATHENS, Ohio — Saturday's game between the football teams of Ohio University and Virginia Tech was billed as homecoming for the hosts. Instead it turned out to be Don Strock "appreciation day."

Strock fired four touchdown passes for a Tech record in an easy 53-21 victory. Sophomore receiver Ricky Scales also got his name in the record book by catching three scoring aerials.

There was little suspense in the contest as Tech scored the first three times it had the ball to lead 17-0 before the Bobcats made their second first down.

The Gobblers were extremely efficient, scoring seven of the nine times they had the ball. They tallied six touchdowns, a field goal, five kicked extra points and one two-point conversion. Before leaving the quarter- backing chores to sophomore Bruce Ariens, Strock completed 14 passes for 24 for 307 yards and the four touchdowns.

Strock entered the game as the nation's leading passer. His performance should keep him in that lofty status.

While Coach Charlie Cofey's first team was in the game it turned the ball over once via an interception and again when it failed to make a gain. See Coffey, Page 10, Cols. 7-9
