At Don Strock: The Nation's Number One And Offensive Yardage Leader For 1972

GOLDEN ARM—The golden arm of Don Strock, 15, paced Tech in a 34-22 victory over Oklahoma State University at Lane Stadium. He connected on 20 of 40 passes for 355 yards and two touchdowns.

STROCK THE KICKER—Don Strock, Tech's All-American quarterback candidate was also used as a Tech punter in the Alabama and Wake Forest games. Strock started punting after the number one and two punters were sidelined with broken bones.

PHOTOS BY BILL HALL

STROCK THE HOLDER—Don Strock, 15, held for his brother, Dave, as he kicks a field goal to give Tech a 34-32 win over Oklahoma State. Strock was also the holder on Dave's record setting 56 yard field goal. Don also held on Dave's extra point boots during the season.

A FAMILIAR SCENE—This was a familiar scene at Tech football games this season as Coach Charlie Coffey gives instructions to Don Strock. Strock led Tech to a 5-6-3 season, giving Coach Coffey his first winning season at Virginia Tech.