From Wire Dispatches

Paul Allen blasted a home run with two out and two on in the fourth inning Monday to break a scoreless game and carry the Virginia Tech Gobblers to a 4-0 victory over Virginia Military Institute.

In other State college baseball action, the University of Florida shutout Virginia, 2-0, and Virginia Commonwealth edged Campbell College, 3-2, in the first game of a twin bill and dropped the second, 4-3. East Carolina defeated North Carolina, 5-3.

Righthander Berkley Cundiff shutout the Keydets as Virginia Tech recorded its fifth straight victory for a 6-5 ledger so far this year. Cundiff struckout 10 batters and allowed six hits.

Southpaw John Pate hurled an eight-hitter and absorbed the loss for VMI. The Keydets now stand 2-1 overall.