Tech Beat East Tenn.

BLACKSBURG — John Van Arrhen's two-run home run ignited a four-run rally in the sixth inning and helped Virginia Tech to a 4-2 victory over East Tennessee State Tuesday.

The homer was Van Arrhen's third of the season.

Dave Rowan earned the victory, his second against one loss, allowing just two earned runs in the seventh before being relieved by Mike Arrington in the eighth. The Gobbler pitching staff has not yielded an earned run in the last 30 innings.

Wisbauer, Vince Carbaugh and Dave Wissbauer each contributed a pair of singles to the Tech attack.

East Tennessee State 0 0 0 0 0 4 0
Virginia Tech 0 0 0 0 0 4 0