HOUSTON - Texas Tech may have lost its posture and become the biggest college football team in the country Friday night, but the 56-24 head of unbeaten Houston at the half, the Gophers were inundated after intermission and beaten, 56-37.

The Gophers, who were outscoring the Vikings by four touchdowns to none at the end of the first quarter, were outscored by the Houston offense 14-0 in the second half.

The Gophers were going to win their second straight game here, and they were holding on to a 14-7 lead after the first quarter.

The Texans, who led the game 14-7 after the first quarter, looked like they were going to win the game.

They were on the move after the first quarter, and they were in the lead 14-7.

The Texans, who led the game 14-7 after the first quarter, looked like they were going to win the game.

They were on the move after the first quarter, and they were in the lead 14-7.

The Texans, who led the game 14-7 after the first quarter, looked like they were going to win the game.

They were on the move after the first quarter, and they were in the lead 14-7.

The Texans, who led the game 14-7 after the first quarter, looked like they were going to win the game.

They were on the move after the first quarter, and they were in the lead 14-7.

The Texans, who led the game 14-7 after the first quarter, looked like they were going to win the game.

They were on the move after the first quarter, and they were in the lead 14-7.

The Texans, who led the game 14-7 after the first quarter, looked like they were going to win the game.

They were on the move after the first quarter, and they were in the lead 14-7.

The Texans, who led the game 14-7 after the first quarter, looked like they were going to win the game.

They were on the move after the first quarter, and they were in the lead 14-7.

The Texans, who led the game 14-7 after the first quarter, looked like they were going to win the game.

They were on the move after the first quarter, and they were in the lead 14-7.

The Texans, who led the game 14-7 after the first quarter, looked like they were going to win the game.

They were on the move after the first quarter, and they were in the lead 14-7.

The Texans, who led the game 14-7 after the first quarter, looked like they were going to win the game.

They were on the move after the first quarter, and they were in the lead 14-7.

The Texans, who led the game 14-7 after the first quarter, looked like they were going to win the game.

They were on the move after the first quarter, and they were in the lead 14-7.

The Texans, who led the game 14-7 after the first quarter, looked like they were going to win the game.

They were on the move after the first quarter, and they were in the lead 14-7.

The Texans, who led the game 14-7 after the first quarter, looked like they were going to win the game.

They were on the move after the first quarter, and they were in the lead 14-7.

The Texans, who led the game 14-7 after the first quarter, looked like they were going to win the game.

They were on the move after the first quarter, and they were in the lead 14-7.

The Texans, who led the game 14-7 after the first quarter, looked like they were going to win the game.

They were on the move after the first quarter, and they were in the lead 14-7.

The Texans, who led the game 14-7 after the first quarter, looked like they were going to win the game.

They were on the move after the first quarter, and they were in the lead 14-7.