Hokies, 22-21

The Phoebus Sports Page

VT up-December 17, 1981

The game, held a subplot Christmas celebration, was a battle of emotions, preparation and taking advantage of other people's mistakes.

As the teams got in their places, the Hokies scored first. A fumble on the ball and the Hokies turned the tables on the Cavaliers on their own side of the field. It was a long day for the Cavaliers and their fans.

The Cavaliers seemed to be the inspired team of the day. They were able to gain some ground behind the strong defense but were unable to score.

The Hokies scored 22-21 on a field goal from aHokie kick. The Cavaliers were unable to get on the board and the game ended with the Hokies winning, 22-21.

At halftime, the teams had accumulated a total of 24 points. The Hokies scored 14 of those points, while the Cavaliers scored 10. The Hokies had possession of the ball for most of the first half and were able to maintain their lead throughout.

In the second half, the Hokies continued to dominate, scoring 10 more points to the Cavaliers' 6. The Hokies ended the game with a total of 22 points, while the Cavaliers finished with 21.

The Hokies' victory was attributed to their strong defense and ability to capitalize on their opportunities. The Cavaliers, on the other hand, were unable to overcome their mistakes and were unable to score enough points to keep up with the Hokies.

The game was played in front of a packed crowd, with fans from both teams cheering loudly.

In conclusion, the Hokies' victory was a testament to their preparation and ability to take advantage of their opponents' mistakes. The Cavaliers, despite their efforts, were unable to overcome their mistakes and were unable to score enough points to keep up with the Hokies.

The game was a thrilling experience for fans of both teams, with the Hokies emerging as the victors with a score of 22-21.