BLACKSBURG (AP) — Freshman Dave Hill had four hits Friday, two of them doubles, to lead a parade of Virginia Tech batters as the Gobblers destroyed Southern Connecticut's Owls, 14-2, in college baseball.

The Owls, now 2-1, began the scoring in the first inning and led 1-0 until the third, when the Gobblers, now 4-8, exploded for four runs.

Gene Fornash got a double and two singles for Tech and David Halstead three singles as the Gobblers added three runs in the sixth and five runs in the seventh for the win.
