Tech Beaten In Baseball

RICHMOND (AP) — Lynn Gillette’s two-run single capped a three-run rally in the seventh inning Wednesday that gave Richmond an 8-6 baseball victory over Virginia Tech.

Gillette’s game-winning hit followed a walk, Bill Daly’s single, an error and two fielders’ choices, one of which scored a run. Gillette and Ken Francisco each drove in two runs for the Spiders.

Richmond, now 10-7, had four batters with two hits each, while the Gobblers, now 3-8, had three.

Spider relief pitcher Mike Walton picked up his fourth save. He has allowed only two runs in 14 innings.
