NORFOLK (AP)—Freshman catcher Nate Blake had five hits in five times at bat Sunday as he helped Old Dominion to a 5-4 victory in the second game and a split of its baseball doubleheader with Virginia Tech. The Gobblers won the opener 4-1.

Blake actually had six straight hits, including a single in the sixth inning of the first game that set up the Monarchs’ only run.

Tech is now 9-12 for the season and Old Dominion 8-17.
