Tech Baseballers Rip GW 18-1

BLACKSBURG — Virginia Tech unloaded for 20 hits collecting eight runs in the fourth inning and six in the seventh, and combined with the one-hit pitching of Jerry Watkins, clobbered George Washington, 18-1, Saturday.

The Gobblers were led by David Halstead who went 4-4 including a double and three singles and three RBIs, two of which came on a towering fly ball caught at the base of the center field fence.

Catcher Jim Wright also banged out two doubles and a single and drove in four runs.

George Washington 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 — 1 1 4
Virginia Tech 0 3 1 8 0 0 0 0 6 0 x — 18 2 0 1
Cusman, Reid (4), Albert (8) and Cusman; Watkins and Wright.