Tech Defeats Virginia 7-4

CHARLOTTESVILLE — Virginia Tech took advantage of three Virginia errors in the eighth inning to defeat the Cavaliers 7-4 Sunday.

David Halstead reached first on an error and Dave Wisbauer followed with a double. Tech catcher Danny Shrievs reached on another error to score Halstead. As he scored, Wisbauer tried to score from second but was caught in a rundown. But, Virginia's first baseman dropped the ball and Wisbauer scored.

Virginia Tech 7, Virginia 4
Virginia Tech . . . . . 100 100 221—7 9 2
Virginia . . . . . 000 211 000—4 5 4

Cundiff, Watkins (7) and Shrievs; Brindle and Bracht. HR’s—Sroba (Va.) 5th, none on. Watkins (VPI) 9th, none on.