Virginia Tech has lost 6-8 Lorenza Watson of Buckingham to VCU. Tech also lost Norcom’s 6-7 Tony Holloway to Chuck Noe and the Rams.

There is one report circulating that Tech Coach Don DeVoe was indeed told by Illinois athletic director Cecil Coleman that he would be the new coach of the Illini. As the story goes, DeVoe had dinner with Coleman the night before the announcement and was told that things were all set. Late that night, Coleman called back to say that things were a bit unsettled. The next morning, it is said, Coleman told DeVoe that the athletic council had not taken his (Coleman's) recommendation of DeVoe and instead had hired Lou Henson of New Mexico State.
