VPI Beats Monarchs

Virginia Tech spoiled Old Dominion’s final day of the baseball season Sunday with a doubleheader sweep while Richmond split in its Southern Conference action with Appalachian State.

The Gobblers, sparked by the power display of Paul Adams, uncorked five rundrappers in whipping the Monarchs 10-3 and 7-1.

Richmond’s scoring was limited to the fifth inning of a 4-1 victory before the Mountaineers unleashed 12 hits for an 11-4 conquest in the nightcap.

First Game

Richmond: 000 040 0-4 8 2
App. State: 100 000 0-1 7 4
Boteler, B. Gillette (4) and L. Gillette; Morris, Rudisill (5) and Carney, Cline (7). W—B. Gillette, 2-0. L—Morris, 4-3.

Second Game

Richmond: 00 004 0-4 6 2
App. State: 230 033 x-11 12 1
Martin, Walton (2), Gregory (6), Gillette, Cross (4); Monczynski, Ellis (5), Dell (5) and Cline. W—Monczynski, 2-5. L—Martin, 2-6.

First Game

Virginia Tech .................. 000 050 2—10 12 1
Old Dominion ................. 000 003 0—3 5 5

Puglisi and Shelton, Grieves (6); Cy Brinkley John Marnoudis (5) and Blake, Deans (4). W—Puglisi (4-2). L—Brinkley (2-7).

Home Runs—Virginia Tech, Varboncoeur (2nd, 1 on), Shelton (2nd, none on), Adams (5th, 2 on).

Second Game

Virginia Tech .................. 000 300 8—7 8 1
Old Dominion ................. 100 000 0—1 2 2
Neilson and Shelton, Campbell, Pegelow (4) and Blake. W—Neilson (5-1). L—Campbell (5-5).

Home Runs—Virginia Tech, Acre (3rd, 1 on), Adams (4th, 2 on).