R-M WINS, MONARCHS SPLIT

Madison Raises Win Skein To 8; VPI Sweeps Pair; Cavaliers Lose

From Wire Dispatches

Madison ran its baseball winning streak to eight Sunday by sweeping a doubleheader from Indiana State, Pa., 8-2, 5-1.

Also prevailing in a twin bill Sunday were the Gobblers of Virginia Tech, defeating Toledo 7-5, 6-1.

In other action among State college teams, Randolph-Macon edged Towson State 3-2, Old Dominion University split a doubleheader with visiting Dartmouth, winning the opener 3-0 and dropping the nightcap 11-4. North Carolina State blanked Virginia 6-0 in an Atlantic Coast Conference tussle. Virginia State dropped two games to Mansfield State 3-0, 6-0.

Today William and Mary headlines a seven-game card by hosting Virginia Military Institute at Cary Field.

Norfolk State will try to bounce back into the winners’ circle at home against St. Augustine’s. The Spartans had a seven-game winning streak snapped by Westfield State Saturday.

J. W. Mitchell, with two singles and double, and Mike LaCasse, with a single and double, led the Dukes of Madison in the first game. Todd Winterfeldt paced the Dukes in the nightcap with a home run and a triple.

Home runs were the order of the day for the Gobblers, with five circuit clouts being smashed.

Harold Williams unloaded a roundtripper in the first contest. In the second game, ex-Warwick standout Tony Metts, Sandy Hill, Wayne Shelton and Steve Dodd unloaded the four-baggers.

Catcher Donnie Stidham’s three-run triple and Larry McAlexander’s relief pitching sparked Randolph-Macon.

Stidham, who threw out three Towson baserunners trying to steal second, delivered his game-winning blow in the second.

Brain Campbell chucked a one-hitter for ODU in the opener. Campbell had a no-hitter until John Fleury singled with one out in the seventh.

In the nightcap, Monarch pitching was just the opposite, issuing 10 walks as Dartmouth rolled.

Mansfield State pitching was as sparkling as Campbell’s performance, limiting Virginia State batters to one hit and striking out 23 in the twin bill.

| N.C. State | 010 201 110--6 9 0 |
| Virginia | 000 000 000--0 6 2 |

Skinner and Port; Moore and Duff. Home runs — Chappell, N. C. State, 4th, one on; Chappell, N. C. State, 6th, none on.

(First Game)

| Toledo | 000 010 0-1 8 1 |
| Virginia Tech | 030 111 x-6 8 1 |

Ernst, Bascom (4) and Karabin, McNutt (6); Fisher and Shelton. L — Ernst. Home run — Williams, Va. Tech, 2nd, one on.

(Second Game)

| Toledo | 000 010 0-1 8 1 |
| Virginia Tech | 030 111 x-6 8 1 |