Tech Win Streak

BLACKSBURG — Virginia Tech ran its baseball winning streak to 27 Sunday with a doubleheader sweep over Morris Harvey here.

Freshman lefthander Mike Rhodes withstood a slight scare in the first game as the Hokies won 7-5 and Bob Fisher pitched a six-hitter in the second game for a 9-0 rout.

Sandy Hill’s two-run homer got the tired Gobblers off to a good start in the opener, but they had to overcome the Golden Eagles’ four-run third inning. In the second game, Tech scored seven times in the first inning to help push its season record to 30-7.

Virginia Tech 7-9, Morris Harvey 5-0
First Game

Morris Harvey
Virginia Tech

Chittum and Samms. Rhodes, Power (7) and Shelton. W—Rhodes. L—Chittum. HR—Hill (VT), 1st, one on; Mertz (MH), 3rd, two on.