Virginia Tech Golf Team Is Winner
In Southwest Association Tourney

Wytheville—The Virginia Tech team won its second match in the second regularly scheduled Southwest Virginia Golf Association tournament played at Wytheville Country Club.

Seven teams braved the unseasonal cold and wind to complete play.

The Tech golfers won over Wytheville, the host club, by six strokes.

Gary Arnold of Saltville and E. G. Willard of the Tech team tied for medalist honors with scores of 72. Arnold won the honors on the first hole of a sudden death playoff.
