Williams Is Named To NCAA Team

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.—Freshman first baseman Harold Williams of the Virginia Tech Hokies was named to the NCAA Mideast Regional All-Tournament team.

Williams, a native of Columbus, O. was the only member of Tech’s baseball team to be named to the tournament squad.

Williams went three for seven at the plate, batted in three runs and scored one in Tech’s two losses to Central Michigan University and the University of Florida.

The first baseman gave Tech it’s final run in the Florida game, hitting a home run in the ninth inning.
