Gough Signs With Tech

Kelly Gough, one of the top young women tennis players in Southwest Virginia, has signed a grant-in-aid to attend Virginia Tech in Blacksburg.

Gough, who played the No. 2 position as a senior on the Andrew Lewis boys’ tennis team and has been on the varsity for four years, finished the season with an 8-6 record and helped the Wolverines with win the Blue Ridge District championship.

In Kelly’s most recent outing, she won the women’s singles title and was a member of the mixed doubles team that won that Star City Tennis Tournament.
