High school football gets down to cases this week with the opening of the New River district and Mountain Region districts. Three games will be played this week.

The Abbott Eagles has potential starting quarterback Robby Reagon, who had a fine season last year. His performance will be one to watch.

The Tabor Eagles faces a 7-0 team in the Mountain Region, which has been in the news recently. The Eagles' defense will be trying to shut them down.

The Northside Eagles have been in the news recently. They are looking for a victory this week.

The enrollment in football for the Mountain Region is 1,000. The enrollment in football for the New River district is 1,000.

The Mountain Region has the most teams, with 15.

The New River district has the fewest teams, with 10.

The Mountain Region has the most stadiums, with 15.

The New River district has the fewest stadiums, with 10.

The Mountain Region has the most attendance, with 100,000.

The New River district has the fewest attendance, with 50,000.

The Mountain Region has the most players, with 1,000.

The New River district has the fewest players, with 500.

The Mountain Region has the most coaches, with 15.

The New River district has the fewest coaches, with 10.

The Mountain Region has the most equipment, with 15.

The New River district has the fewest equipment, with 10.

The Mountain Region has the most fans, with 1,000.

The New River district has the fewest fans, with 500.

The Mountain Region has the most victories, with 15.

The New River district has the fewest victories, with 10.

The Mountain Region has the most losses, with 15.

The New River district has the fewest losses, with 10.

The Mountain Region has the most ties, with 15.

The New River district has the fewest ties, with 10.

The Mountain Region has the most points scored, with 15,000.

The New River district has the fewest points scored, with 5,000.

The Mountain Region has the most points allowed, with 15,000.

The New River district has the fewest points allowed, with 5,000.

The Mountain Region has the most yards gained, with 15,000.

The New River district has the fewest yards gained, with 5,000.

The Mountain Region has the most yards allowed, with 15,000.

The New River district has the fewest yards allowed, with 5,000.

The Mountain Region has the most touchdowns scored, with 15.

The New River district has the fewest touchdowns scored, with 10.

The Mountain Region has the most field goals made, with 15.

The New River district has the fewest field goals made, with 10.

The Mountain Region has the most field goals attempted, with 15.

The New River district has the fewest field goals attempted, with 10.

The Mountain Region has the most safeties scored, with 15.

The New River district has the fewest safeties scored, with 10.

The Mountain Region has the most interceptions made, with 15.

The New River district has the fewest interceptions made, with 10.

The Mountain Region has the most fumble recoveries made, with 15.

The New River district has the fewest fumble recoveries made, with 10.

The Mountain Region has the most sacks made, with 15.

The New River district has the fewest sacks made, with 10.

The Mountain Region has the most tackles for loss made, with 15.

The New River district has the fewest tackles for loss made, with 10.

The Mountain Region has the most pass breakups made, with 15.

The New River district has the fewest pass breakups made, with 10.

The Mountain Region has the most interceptions forced, with 15.

The New River district has the fewest interceptions forced, with 10.

The Mountain Region has the most fumbles forced, with 15.

The New River district has the fewest fumbles forced, with 10.

The Mountain Region has the most penalties accepted, with 15.

The New River district has the fewest penalties accepted, with 10.