Veitch's Jerry Sharpe and William and Myron Ben Koehn have been a threat to the Michigan State defense on many occasions. Ben Koehn gets ready for a shot and has his eyes on the ball as the referee, John H. Goodwin, gets out of the way. Ben Koehn (#5) is one of the leading scorers in the state. He and his teammate, Jerry Sharpe (#2), have been doing their part to help the Mason team win their third straight state basketball championship. Ben Koehn is known for his ability to score under pressure and is a key player for the Mason basketball team. His teamwork with Jerry Sharpe has been instrumental in their success. This year, they are determined to bring home the championship once again.
