John Alt (OT, Chiefs 1984-96) is an independent financial consultant for Midwest Capital Management. He lives in North Oaks, Minn., with his wife Carolyn and their four children, Lauren, 10, Mark, 8, Julia, 5 and Jordyn, 4. For the past seven years, Alt has served on the board of The Lighthouse, a shelter for pregnant and abused women. He is also actively involved with the Kansas City Mission, which provides food and shelter for the homeless. Alt’s hobbies include ice fishing, snowmobiling, golf and hunting.

Ken Barefoot

Ken Barefoot (TE, Redskins 1968-69) is the managing broker with William E. Wood and Associates, Realtors. Barefoot and his wife, Kathi, live in Virginia Beach, Va. Kathi is owner-director of Barefoot Kids, a family owned chain of day care centers and preschools. The Barefoots have four children—all of whom attended their father’s alma mater, Virginia Tech University—and three grandchildren. Barefoot is a local director for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and was recently inducted into the Virginia Tech Sports Hall of Fame. In his spare time, he enjoys swimming and golfing.

Jeff Beaver (QB, Colts 1968-70) was recently named Executive Director of the Charlotte Regional Sports Commission following a long career with Bank of America Corp. He and his wife of 33 years, Carol, live in Charlotte, N.C., and have two grown sons. Beaver serves on the Board of Trustees for the North Carolina Health and Fitness Foundation and is actively involved with United Family Services, an organization that raises money for shelters for battered women.

Ray Bentley (LB, Bills and Bengals 1986-92) enters his third year as a FOX-TV play-by-play announcer for NFL and NFL Europe games. He also serves as color analyst for the Buffalo Destroyers arena football team and hosts MSHSAA Magazine, a television show that features Michigan high school athletics. He lives in Grandville, Mich., with his wife Jodi and their five children. Bentley coaches little league football and hosts an annual youth sports camp. He has published seven children’s books. His hobbies include playing basketball and tennis, golfing, fishing and swimming with his kids.

Alicia live in Highland Park, Ill., with their four children. Duerson serves on the advisory committee of Ronald McDonald Charities and as Director of the Chicago Metro YMCA. He is also a member of Notre Dame’s Monogram Club.

Jay Novacek

Freddie Hyatt (WR, Cardinals, Redskins 1968-73) owns Hyatt Racing Stable, a small horse breeding farm and training center in Central Florida. During his NFL off-seasons, Hyatt showed 11 world champion quarterhorses. Today, he spends most of his time buying, selling, raising and training horses. Hyatt and his girlfriend Dori, a licensed pilot, live in Morriston, Fla.

Bruce Kimball (OG, Giants and Redskins 1979-84) is a New England District Sales Manager for Heidelberg USA, a global leader in the manufacture and sale of printing presses. He and his wife Diane live in Rye, N.H., with their three children, 13-year old Jaclyn and 10-year old twins Brianna and Baileigh. His hobbies include snow skiing, golfing, jogging and going to the beach.

Jay Novacek (TE, Cardinals and Cowboys 1985-95) owns a working cattle ranch and exotic hunting operation in Nebraska. For the past two years, he has also hosted ESPN’s “Cabelas Sportsman’s Quest,” a hunting and fishing show. Novacek lives in Brady, Neb., with his wife of 20 years, Diane. He is a member of the Dallas Gun Club and hosts an annual clay shooting event that has raised more than $600,000 for the Boy Scouts. Novacek also enjoys riding cutting horses (those used for cattle round-ups) and has competed internationally since 1991.

Brad Oates (OT, Cardinals, Lions, Chiefs, Bengals and Packers 1976-82) is Vice President of Bluebonnet Savings Bank and Chairman of Bluebonnet Home Mortgage Corp. He also serves as Vice President and Special Counsel for Beal Aerospace Technologies, which is developing a proprietary rocket system to carry satellites into space. He and his wife Karen live in Dallas, Texas, and have three children, Kara, 22, Marisa, 20, and Brad, 17. Oates is a member of the Utah Bar Association and author of the management book, “The Four Disciplines Business Model.” In his spare time, Oates enjoys spending time with his family, triathlon training, weight lifting, golfing, martial arts and outdoor sports.

Jim Ringo (C, Packers, Eagles 1953-67; Head Coach, Bills 1976-77) is retired and lives in Chesapeake, Va., with his wife Judy. He has four children and five grandchildren. Ringo was recently voted by Syracuse University alumni as the school’s center for its football “Team of the Millennium.” His hobbies include golfing and gardening.

Dave Duerson

Johnny Roland (RB, Cardinals and Giants 1966-73) just completed his third season as Running Backs Coach for the Arizona Cardinals. He previously served as an assistant coach for the Rams, Jets and Bears. Roland is also part owner of KIRL-AM 1460, a St. Louis radio station that plays Christian and jazz music. He lives in Tempe, Ariz., and has three children and three grandchildren. In his spare time, Roland enjoys golfing and reading.