GREG BABE ON TECH GRID TEAM

BLACKSBURG, Va. -- Greg Babe of New Martinsville, West Virginia, is a member of the 1975 Virginia Tech football team. A former fullback at Magnolia High, Babe earned a spot on the All-State, All-Valley, All-Area, All-OVAC and All-County teams while playing under coach Lou Nocida.

In addition to his football prowess, the 5-11, 195 pound freshman, was also an outstanding outfielder for Magnolia's baseball team and hurdler for the track team.

Besides athletics, Babe also excels in the classroom, having graduated number one in his class with a 4.0 grade point average. He expects to major in Chemical Engineering while attending Va. Tech.

Babe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Babe of Doolin Rd., New Martinsville, West Virginia.

The Hokies open their second season under coach Jimmy Sharpe on the road against the University of Kentucky on Sept. 13 and Kent State on the 20th before coming home to Blacksburg on the 27th against the University of Richmond.
